(a) the articles of daily and common use the prices of which have gone up and gone down as a result of current Budget proposals;

(b) the extent of increase and fall in prices of these articles;

(c) whether it is a fact that benefit of fall in prices of daily use announced in the Budget have not benefited the consumers in the least;

(d) whether Government's attention has been drawn to a news-item published in 'The Pioneer' dated the 25th March, 1995 under the captaion prices do not follow the Doctors' prescription; and

(e) if so, the reaction of Government thereon?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY): (a) to (e) The post budget wholesale price index of some daily and common use commodities as on 25.3.95 has registered a fall and in some the increase has been very modest as shown below:

	Post Budget Price fall (%)		Post Budget Price Rise (%)
Jawar	0.2	Rice	0.3
Gram	3.8	Wheat	0.9
Masur	2.1	Bajra	6.0
Milk	0.6	Arhar	3.3
Onion	0.8	Moong	0.8
Condiments & Spices	0.8	Urad	4.4
Tea	11.7	Potatoes	11.8
Atta	0.3	Fish	6.8
Sugar	0.4	Mutton	1.5
Khandsari	3.7	Chillies (dry)	1.0
Groundnut oil	0.2	Gur	2.6
Coconut oil	1.8	Rape & Mustard oil	0 5
		Dhoties, Saries & Voils	3.7

The data on wholesale prices so for available is for only two weeks after the presentation of Budget. It is, therefore, too early to asses the impact of the Budget on the level of the prices. However, there is a clear deceleration in the growth of prices seen since the Budget with the annual inflation having dropped to 9 per cent as on April 8, 1995.
